Ecumenical Sharing Kitchen Family of Faith is to work at the Sharing Kitchen on Monday, July 15, 2024, and Thursday, July 18, 2024. We are in need of at least five (5) people for Monday and at least four (4) people for Thursday. If you are able to help one of the days or both days there is a sign-up sheet available to put your name and phone number on at the back of the worship area. Thank You.

Special Congregational Meeting Sunday, June 23, 2024, following the worship service. Under the assumption that we will have in hand the final phase one design and the provisions for financing the gap between the building fund and the project cost, a special meeting of the congregation has been called by the Vision Team on Sunday June 23, 2024 to decide on whether or not to proceed with the renovation of the 170 West Davis facility.

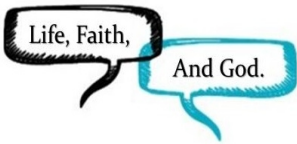

If, we do not have these two critical pieces of information, the special meeting will be postponed to a later date of which the congregation will be notified.

There will be five items of business at the special meeting:

1. Approve Dan Miller as the institutional signature for paperwork
2. Approve the Phase 1 Proposal
3. Approve Financing Plan
4. Empower the Vision Team to approve expenditures up to the approved amount
5. Empower Renovation Team to make day to day decision during Phase 1 with regular reporting to the Vision Team.

It is vital that as many members as possible be present at this meeting. There must be a quorum for these decisions to be made; and the decisions are of such magnitude that there should be as much input as possible.

Summer Midweek Adult Conversations

Summer Conversations About...

Communicating the faith, having conversations with non-believers about the Gospel and how it has transformed our lives does not come naturally to many of us. We are not in the habit of sharing off the top of our heads what we believe and why we live as we live. We have not always reflected on how the people around us may see Christianity different than us.

Within the safety and support of our Family of Faith, you are invited to have conversations about life, faith, and God. Each Tuesday, at 1:30pm and 7:00pm we will gather at the mall facility responding to two questions, for which there is no one right answer, to assist us to put into words what we may only have thought about from time to time. We did this several years ago and most participants found it helpful and a great opportunity to grow.
